REPORT OF BOARD OF FIRE ENGINEERS

In accordance to a vote passed in the annual town meeting of 1930 your Board was authorized to purchase a motor pumping combination. After careful study of the situation, a Seagraves "Suburbanite" pumping engine was purchased, which was delivered and immediately put in service on May 5th. A few days later the engine was given an exhaustive operating test by a representative of the New Hampshire Board of Fire Underwriters and pronounced "very satisfactory."

Since going into service the engine has responded to three still and seven bell alarms and has worked most efficiently. Six men have been trained to operate and drive the machine and have proved capable of handling it. One man attends to the servicing, upkeep and care, in addition to his duties, as driver.

The General Taylor Engine Co. has by its own action and the consent of the Board, reduced the number of active firemen to twenty-four. It having been found that because of the labor saved by the introduction of motor apparatus a greater number was unnecessary. All former members stand ready to serve, if they are needed at any time.

Your Board would urge that residents in the outlying districts, wherever possible, would provide a water supply within reasonable distance of their buildings whereby the engine could be used in case of fire. Several of our citizens have already attended to this matter.

In at least two cases, fire insurance premiums have been reduced by the introduction of a modern fire engine and we anticipate that further reductions will be made in the near future. We trust that the wisdom of purchasing this piece of apparatus will become more apparent as time goes on.

W. L. CHILDS,
W. J. PARMENTER,
JOHN E. MARSHALL,
Board of Fire Engineers.

Mrs. George S. Powers, Cosmopolitan.
 Stephen C. Bennett, American Rifleman.
 Epworth League, Epworth Herald.

The library was open to visitors all day of August 23, the Saturday of Henniker's Old Home Week. At this time there was on exhibit pictures of Henniker taken in its early history, and these proved to be very interesting to all old residents; they were collected and arranged by Prof. Francis L. Childs.

Henniker's Old Home Day Visitors' Register has been placed in the library also the cup won by the Woman's Club in the float contest is here.

The Autobiography of Calvin Coolidge was presented to the library by the graduating class of 1893, consisting of Mrs. Grace Cooper and Mr. Herbert Rice. This book was the prize awarded to the largest class represented.

Book week was observed in the usual way of book display and story hour for the children. Mrs. Marion Sargent Connor told very interesting incidents of her life while in Japan. This was in November.

The Saturday afternoon "Story hour" for the children under the age of twelve years is being conducted regularly, and the increased attendance is very gratifying. The purchase of two small tables and eight chairs to match was made in the summer, and the small chairs are a great convenience in seating the children in their little alcove as the usual number, of twenty-five, taxes its capacity. These "Story hours" are financed from the fines collected for overdue books. The librarian engages a suitable person to entertain the children and the kindly interest shown and willingness to help is much appreciated.

Those who have helped us so far in this capacity are: Mrs. Marion S. Connor, of Hudson, N. H.; Miss Katherine Chappell, Mrs. Hervey Patch, Mrs. Marion Garland, Mrs. Hazel Henderson.

Librarian.

COGSWELL SPRING WATER WORKS

The Board of Water Commissioners herewith submits its seventeenth annual report:

Pumping Station

From January 1, 1930 to January 1, 1931, 13,288.697 gallons of water were pumped into the reservoir. This represents an increase over the same period for last year of 2,151,007 gallons. A more alarming fact is that it represents an increase of nearly 70 per cent over the corresponding figure five years ago, continued and repeated warnings and entreaties on the part of the Commissioners to the contrary notwithstanding. The situation has become critical. The only remedy lies in the hands of the subscribers—using the water in a reasonable manner, in a serious and thoughtful effort to prevent waste.

As compared with the state as a whole Henniker has a creditable record of attendance. In the matter of tardiness, however, our average per pupil remained the same in 1929-1930 as the year before—nearly double the state average. There is real danger of our high school losing its approval by the Commissioner of Education, as for two successive years our register has shown more than three tardinesses per pupil. I am sorry to say that the record for the present year does not promise to be much better.

In contrast to this record, four schools showed an excellent record of promptness—the Brick school, Westboro Corner, Central third and fourth grades, and Central fifth and sixth grades.

The large enrollment of Grades 1 and 2 at the Central school this year has again made necessary the employment of a part-time assistant teacher in the primary room:

Not quite a year ago, we were all saddened by the sudden death of one of our most faithful and beloved teachers. Julia Rice, for years the sympathetic and motherly mistress of her little school at Westboro Corner, closed her school-house door last March to answer the call of the Great Teacher. Her kindly character lives on in the hearts of her pupils.

OUR SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The building at Westboro Corner has been remodeled into a thoroughly modern one-room school. Extra windows were added on the left of the pupils, enough to make the total glass area equal to one-fifth of the area of the floor. No windows were taken out, but the pupils' seats were moved toward the left, and a partial partition was built on their right, about six feet from the wall, in such a way as to shut off the direct rays of light from the windows on that side. On this partition a blackboard was placed. The walls were painted a light buff, and the ceiling white. A jacket was built around the stove, and chemical toilets installed.

It is hoped that citizens interested to see the effect of such a thorough change will pay a visit to the Westboro Corner building. This is certainly a very pleasant study room.

The interior of the Quaker Street school has also been refinished in a light color.

The Cogswell Memorial School is nearly completed, and it is hoped that it will be ready for our use before the close of the present school year. It has on the top floor one large study hall, three ordinary class rooms, and two small rooms besides a room for women teachers. The street floor has offices for headmaster and superintendent, and laboratories for the teaching of science and home economics. On the lower floor is an assembly hall which will seat about 125, a lunch room, and a shop for the teaching of mechanic arts, besides locker and toilet rooms. The heating plant is in a sub-basement beneath the assembly hall.

The construction and equipment of this school will make it without question one of the finest buildings in the state.

INSTRUCTION IN OUR SCHOOLS

During the past summer a new edition of the "Program of Studies for the Elementary Schools" was issued by the State Board of Education. This volume of nearly 500 pages is the work of committees of teachers and superintendents, who have worked diligently for more than a year to complete this important task. The principal changes made by the new program are as follows:

a. More emphasis on reading. The 1921 program of studies stated that most children have become independent readers by the end of Grade III, and gave little or no emphasis to formal instruction in reading beyond that point. It is now recognized that further instruction for most pupils is necessary. Training in silent reading as well as oral reading is emphasized.

b. Less arithmetic for the first two grades. Certain processes with numbers that seem very difficult for young children are mastered with comparative ease by pupils who are a little older, and whose minds have developed to a point where they can understand such problems. It seems good judgment to postpone the more formal number work until the minds of the pupils are mature enough to grasp it successfully.

c. More American history, and less European. There was a time when stories of American history were taught in almost every grade, and this plan resulted in much tiresome repetition. In order to avoid this, the 1921 program assigned to Grades 5 and 6 stories of Hebrew, Greek, Roman and English history. While there is much valuable material in this field, experience has shown that two years of work upon it was too much time, and that one year is probably sufficient. In the new program, the fourth and fifth grades are given stories of our own country. The sixth grade studies the European background of American history, which serves as a basis for a more thorough understanding of our nation's development as studied in the seventh and eighth grades.

d. More definite standards or goals in each subject. Throughout the new program, there are helpful suggestions for teaching different subjects effectively. There are also many specific statements as to the degree of mastery expected in each grade. Both of these features should be of help to teachers in securing a higher quality of work on the part of their pupils.

e. Particular reference to the needs of the rural teacher. Teaching a rural school has a technique all its own. A teacher who can do a splendid job of teaching in a city school may find herself quite at a loss in a one-room school with six or more grades. It is encouraging to find this fact recognized by the authors of our new program of studies, and to find many helpful suggestions advanced for the use of the teacher in a rural school.

The curriculum of Henniker High School was slightly changed a year ago, in a way to provide more variety in choice of studies for our pupils than before. A course in Mechanic Arts for the boys of the senior high school is now offered, and eleven boys this year are taking the course. A class for beginners on orchestra instruments was started in 1929, and another group began this work last September. Three members of our high school orchestra—Franklin Annis, Richard Bushnell, and Thelma Cochrane—have been accepted for membership in the All-State High School Orchestra which will give its annual concert in Nashua on April 24, 1931.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE COMING YEAR

1. Visit school one or more times each year. All parents are urged to call at the school which their children are attending, for at least half an hour at some time during the year. We are always glad to welcome parents and neighbors at our schools. Their visits help in many ways, especially by developing a better understanding between parents and teachers.

2. Improved attendance and less tardiness. It is manifestly a waste of money to pay a teacher to teach children if the children are not there to learn. No excuse other than ill health should keep a child from school a single day. Furthermore, the habit of being late which many of us adults have formed, ought not to be encouraged in our children. Parents, by taking care, can prevent much of the absence and tardiness which mar our records each year.

3. Repairs on the Central school building. For some time past, minor repairs on the Central school building have been postponed or neglected, as it was uncertain how much of this building would remain in use after the high school classes had moved into their new quarters. It seems most economical to use the three rooms on the ground floor for the elementary classes the coming year. Some work will need to be done here, as plaster on walls and ceiling is broken in many places, and a few changes will doubtless need to be made in the heating system in order to heat the lower floor as a unit without using steam upstairs.

CONCLUSION

Grateful acknowledgment is here made of the cordial cooperation of school board members, teachers and other citizens of Henniker. Let us continue to practice the motto, "Work together for the good of the children."

Respectfully submitted,

ALMON W. BUSHNELL,
Superintendent of Schools.
